About Us

EngAgeBC

- EngAge BC is an operating arm of BC Care Providers Association:
 - Non-profit organization.
 - Represents most non-government seniors' living and wellness operators in BC.
- EngAge BC developed Route 65 as an easy-to-use tool to help the public navigate the seniors' living and wellness options in their communities.

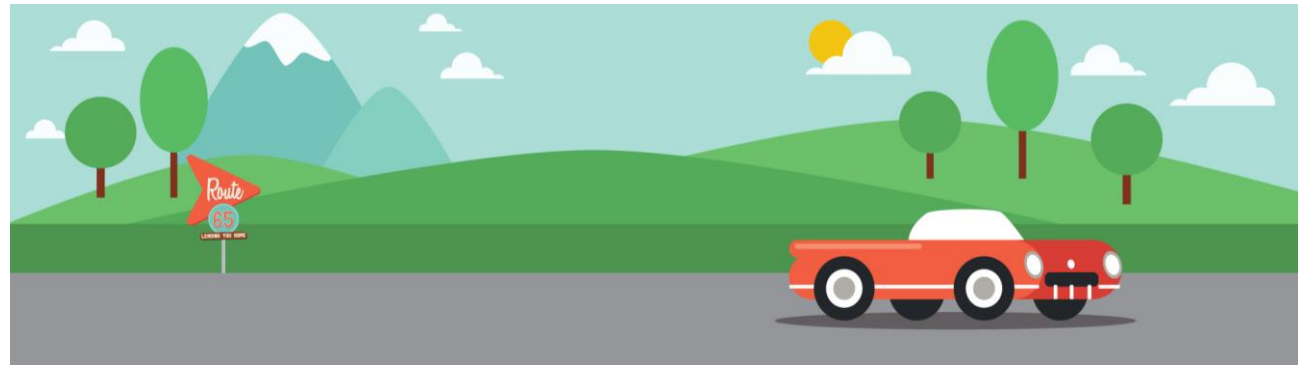

Addressing your questions...

- What is Route 65?
- What seniors' living and wellness options are available in BC?
- How can I access what I need?
- How can Route 65 assist me?
- Q&A

Welcome to Route 65!

Route 65 is a free online tool that connects seniors with BC's leading operators of independent living, assisted living, long-term care and home health care.

When you Need More Support, What are Your Options?

- Independent living
- Home health care
- Assisted living
- Long-term care

Independent Living

The perfect option for seniors who can live alone safely, but don't want to worry about tasks like home maintenance, housekeeping or cooking.

- Amenities and activities available.
- Can often purchase additional support services.
- Private pay.

Home Health Care

Range from publicly subsidized care delivered through the person's health authority, to customized private pay care options that can include medical care, transportation, companionship and homemaking.

Assisted Living

For seniors who can still live independently and make decisions for themselves but require support.

- Housing, hospitality and personal care services.
- Can vary from one room, to apartments.
- Available as a publicly subsidized service (70% of monthly income), or private pay basis.

ENGAGEBC

For many seniors, long-term care is best option when the person can no longer be cared for in their own home or in an assisted living home.

Sometimes called long-term care homes, residential care homes or nursing homes.

For seniors who need 24-hour professional support and care.

Eligible residents pay 80% of their after-tax income for publicly subsidized care.

Seniors can also pay privately for long-term care.
